NEIGHBORHOOD COUNCIL ELECTION
LIST OF ACCEPTABLE FORMS OF DOCUMENTATION

In general, all candidates will have to provide documentation to substantiate the stakeholder requirements (as defined by the Neighborhood Council) for the position they are seeking. Stakeholders for Neighborhood Councils that require documentation for identifying stakeholders must show documentation that substantiates their claimed stakeholder status. The following items will constitute acceptable forms of documentation for establishing stakeholder status. Different categories may require different forms of documentation.

Neighborhood Councils that have chosen the “self-affirmation” method for identifying stakeholders will not require documentation in order to vote, unless your Neighborhood Council is participating in an online election. For all online elections, self-affirmation voters must provide a photo identification to verify their identity.”

COMMUNITY INTEREST

A Community Interest Stakeholder is one who affirms a substantial and ongoing stake within the Neighborhood Council’s boundaries and who may be in the community organizations such as, but not limited to education, non-profit and/or religious.

In determining the factors used to evaluate whether a person has qualified as a Community Interest Stakeholder, documentation is based on the plain meaning of the terms "substantial” and “ongoing," referring to an interest in a Neighborhood Council that is measurable, important, weighty and continuous. In addition, the documentation must satisfy City Council's intent by precluding those stakeholders with a fleeting outside interest from participating as candidates or voters in a Neighborhood Council election.

Receipts from businesses in the neighborhood will not be accepted.

Some Neighborhood Councils may require the community based, senior, youth, environmental, service or volunteer organization or group to meet at least a predetermined number of times within a predefined period of time. In like manner, some Neighborhood Councils will require that the organization or group have a physical address within the boundaries.

All documentation provided must, to a reasonable extent, show the stakeholder’s name and the address of the Community Interest in question.
