I am challenging the eligibility of Swim Silver Lake members as stakeholders. I signed onto the Swim Silver Lake website and then received a letter stating that I now am eligible to vote in the SLNC election. I am not a member of this group. There is not a group it is only a website. I know of at least 3 other people who had the same experience and only thought they were signing on to get information not to join this "group". The domain of this website is located in the State of Florida. There is no address listed on the site itself. I also received an email from Stephen Box yesterday stating that the Silver Lake Swim Club provisional ballots were counted. What is "The Silver Lake Swim Club", was he referring to Swim Silver Lake? I would hate to see a president set that would allow any one to put up a website with the word Silver Lake in it and then be declared stakeholders. I thought that there had to be an ongoing participation with the community. Not in this case. This is an idea and a website.

Please state your desired remedy. (max 100 words)

All ballots that were counted from "stakeholders" who's only eligibility was membership to Swim Silver Lake be denied
