El Pueblo de Los Angeles Historical Monument and El Pueblo Park Association present:
FROM HER: In Honor of National Women's History Month
March 2 – April 9, 2017
at the Biscailuz Gallery | 125 Paseo de La Plaza | Los Angeles, CA 90012

Back by popular demand, the “From Her” exhibition will be from March 2 – April 9, 2017 at the Biscailuz Gallery.

This year's theme is “Latinas in Our Communities: Women Making a Difference.”

All throughout history, Latina women from various countries have made remarkable strides as leaders in education, art, music, business, community advocacy, social justice, environmentalism, politics, and in many other fields.

To this day, there are countless Latinas who exemplify leadership in their communities and continue to make a difference in society.

In honor of National Women's History Month, artists are invited to submit pieces that celebrate and commemorate various Latina women who have gone above and beyond as leaders and change makers, in history or present day.

Family-friendly exhibition content is kindly requested.
Open to established and emerging artists of various mediums.
For submitting artwork, please no food or live plants.

DEADLINE:

All submissions must be received no later than: Saturday, 2/4/17 by 5:00 p.m. PST

A maximum of four (4) submissions from each artist.
All submissions must be the artist's original work.

Accepted work will be notified by the end of February.

If accepted, all work must be delivered to El Pueblo Historical Monument by February 27, 2017.

 El Pueblo Historical Monument reserves the right to alter any part of the exhibition timeline and/or re-schedule or cancel this exhibition at any time. ***
