Notice of Postponement

The Board of Neighborhood Commissioners is postponing its regular meeting and special town hall meeting originally scheduled for tomorrow, July 3, 2018. These meetings include a discussion on the definition of the term "substantial and ongoing" for community interest stakeholders and a feedback session on proposed changes to the Neighborhood Council system. The Commission is postponing the meetings so that concerned stakeholders, who may not be able to attend because of the July 4th holiday the following day, have more notice to provide feedback on these matters. The meetings will be rescheduled later this summer with several weeks advanced notice provided to the community.
